September 2017

Save the Date!

We are so happy to invite you to our 11th Rachel's Vineyard International Leadership Conference! It will be held September 24-27, 2018 at the Malvern Retreat House in Malvern, PA. We have invited a variety of speakers to address a range of topics. Dr. Theresa Burke has been working hard to bring you some fabulous new classes on topics that have never before been discussed in post abortion conferences.

It will be 7 years since the last International Leadership Conference held in the USA and there is so much to be discussed. It is now more important than ever to bring everyone together for four days of education, fellowship and prayer. This is also a great way for those who are looking to learn more about Rachel's Vineyard and post-abortion healing to network with volunteers and leaders from around the world. This conference promises to be wonderful, engaging, and filled with joy and laughter.

We are looking forward to seeing you all there in 2018!!

Gulf Coast Mercies 'Un-Event'
Hurricane Cancels Fundraising Event

Dr Theresa Burke was scheduled to fly in to Houston, TX on Thursday, September 7th to be the Keynote speaker for Gulf Coast Mercies 2nd annual Benefit Dinner. However, sadly Mother Nature had another plan. As the worlds knows Hurricane Harvey swept in and has caused major destruction throughout the Houston area. Sadly, the event had to be cancelled, leaving Gulf Coast Mercies with nothing to help their organization.

In times of tragedy it is not uncommon for previous losses to resurface. Many people begin to review their lives and pray for help when all has been stripped from them. With all the trauma occurring in Houston, lost lives, homes, and jobs, it is crucial that Rachel's Vineyard retreats are available to help those flooded with complex grief and loss.

That is where you come in!! Dr Theresa Burke has decided to host an 'Un-Event' for them! We are hoping to raise all the money needed to help them recover from the Hurricane and to keep their organization afloat!

A little information about Gulf Coast Mercies: <http://gulfcoasthealing.org/>

They are a Christ centered nonprofit ministry serving the Houston, TX area.

Their purpose is to offer exclusive counseling for post-abortive women, men and their loved ones. This resource grew as a result of their own experiences in post-abortive recovery and therapy.

They prepare a safe & gentle place to begin healing the trauma of abortion and miscarriage - one weekend at a time. Using the Rachel's Vineyard Retreat Program™ they have the ability to promote and encourage the necessary healing processes. They have formed a wonderful and caring team comprised of Clergy, Counselors and Laity working together to offer a response with the latest trauma theory integrated with an interfaith approach.

No matter what brought on the pregnancy loss, women and men are hurting after this life changing event. The founder of Gulf Coast Mercies, has personally been through such a loss, several times.

The trauma and grief created agony and suffering until she was fortunate enough to find help. Through the Grace of God, she was made aware of a place to go for healing. The Rachel's Vineyard Retreat Program™, was the format used where she experienced God's Mercy.

One unexpected outcome for those who have experienced the weekend retreat, is the healing effects that flow softly towards loved ones.

Please give GENEROUSLY to this wonderful organization! They are truly making a difference in Texas! Please become a part of their comeback story to help them stay afloat! *Donations can be made at: <https://www.gofundme.com/gulf-coast-mercies-unevent>

First Rachel's Vineyard Weekend Resonates with Attendees

By Renee Webb

Healing of spiritual and emotional wounds, enrichment of the faith and the building up of relationships were just some of the outcomes of the Rachel's Vineyard Retreat held July 28-30 for post-abortive women and men at Domus Trinitatis Retreat Center in rural Carroll, Iowa.

Stormy Poss, retreat facilitator, said it was humbling to watch God bring his children into a deeper relationship with him.

"The participants were able to seek healing and form a relationship with their child," she said.

Poss explained that in some cases the retreat was the first time for the post-abortive women and men to enter into humanity with their child – naming the baby and having conversations with the child.

"Imaging my children fully-grown with Jesus, seeing them as my guides in life" was the most powerful part of the retreat for one of the male participants.

Ultimately, Poss noted, "It's about entering into a deeper relationship with Christ and because of that, being able to enter into a deeper relationship with their child."

Marriage enriched

Not only was the retreat an opportunity to establish a relationship with the abortive child, but wives and husbands had a chance to enrich their marriage.

One wife said because of the retreat, "I believe our marriage has pushed over the breach."

"Wow," was the response of another retreatant. One participant called it a beautiful retreat with wonderful accommodations and food, "but what put it over the top was your time, effort, love and compassion, dedication and true caring that was injected into every session."

Another participant said they loved the retreat and defined it as "wonderfully loving and accepting."

"God knew exactly what I needed. So much more healing took place than I imagined," a retreatant said.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreat offered a unique sensory-based treatment which integrated emotional, psychological and spiritual dimensions. It used Living Scripture Exercises and rituals with the reenactment of Gospel stories, the sacraments, prayer and group activities.

Voice of God

"The Living Scripture Exercises, putting myself in the Scripture stories, allowed me to really hear the voice of God," said a participant.

A member of the retreat team, who is also post-abortive, described the experience as transformative.

“Each one of us on that weekend journey left changed,” she said. “We arrived as individuals carrying our burdens alone, in secret, unsure of that to expect. But together, through the shared stories, the tears and laughter and heartfelt communication we found a safe place to lay our burdens down.”

The team member said they were able to experience Christ’s presence – so close, loving and forgiving – that it allowed them to forgive themselves and let go of the heavy burdens of guilt and shame. Peace washed over them.

“My child would be 42 years old had I not aborted her,” she said. “I didn’t have the joy of watching her grow up, I missed out on the joy of sharing our lives as she became an adult. But through this retreat, I now know that I will have the joy of praising God together with her someday.”

Father Shane Deman, vocations director of the diocese, was the priest who served on the retreat team.

“The experience of this Rachel’s Vineyard retreat was truly therapeutic. It was evident that the men and women who participated found healing from past wounds, but also strength to continue on with a sense of hope,” he said. “I was impressed that at the root of this healing was a personal relationship with Christ who seeks to provide mercy and not condemnation.”

Retreat recommended

Father Deman said he would highly recommend a future retreat to any man or woman suffering from the loss of an aborted or miscarried child.

Another member of the team was Kara Kardell, assistant director of youth and young adult ministry. She suspects that many may not know about this retreat, but believes many post-abortive women could benefit from it.

“It provides a safe place for healing after an abortion, and at the center of it all is Christ’s love and forgiveness,” Kardell said.

Poss extended gratitude to the people of the Carroll area who provided the homemade food and snacks as it “provided an extra loving touch to the participants.”

“It strengthened my faith. When I see the hand of God laid upon the participants, it reminds me that his hand is also upon me for when my next difficult situation will arise,” she said.

Poss pointed out they would like to offer two Rachel’s Vineyard Retreats each year – summer and winter.

Rachel's Vineyard Recommends:
"A Voice for Victoria" by Geraldine Jacobs
Reviewed by Evelyn Walsh

What a special gift to know that a participant at our Rachel's Vineyard retreat felt compelled to write about her healing journey, and A Voice for Victoria by Geraldine Jacobs is the inspiring and beautiful result of her experience. Geri shares the depth of her pain and the story of her life to give the reader a glimpse into one woman's reason to seek abortion. She goes on to share how the results of that decision impacted the rest of her life. She does not leave you wondering why she chose to take that route because her complete honesty is there for all to see. Geri tells her story beginning with her early childhood and ending in the present day so that the reader can understand all that she has done in the way of emotional healing, forgiveness, and soul-searching. All to help her become the woman God created her to be with the desire to help others through their pain. She hopes that those who read her book will see what being pro-life in today's culture really is. Our Rachel's Vineyard team are very blessed that Geri trusted us to be a part of her journey towards healing.

Message from the Pastoral Director

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Saturday, September 9th is the National Day of Remembrance, when simultaneous memorial services are held at the gravesites of aborted children, so as to recall for the community the humanity of these babies and the inhumanity of abortion.

A key purpose of the Day of Remembrance is to issue the urgent call and invitation to healing.

Both before, during, and after this day, you can help. You can connect with the service closest to you, and offer your assistance in participating. And after the day itself has been held, you can invite people to view the history of each of these burial sites, and to pray for continued healing for all who need it. See more at www.AbortionMemorials.com. This project was founded and is co-sponsored by Priests for Life, Pro-life Action League, and Citizens for a Pro-life Society.

And this is actually a project that happens every day, because a) people can visit the gravesites in a virtual way at AbortionMemorials.com and join in prayer and remembrance, and b) to visit the gravesites during the course of the year is an excellent way to engage people on the issue of abortion and to grieve and find healing.

Let's pray, then, that healing will advance through this special day!

Sincerely,

Fr. Frank Pavone
Pastoral Director, Rachel's Vineyard Ministries

Please pray for the repose of Barbara Kofoid's soul. Barbara was the mother of our dear friend and Rachel's Vineyard leader, Lori Eckstine. We pray for peace for Lori and her family during this difficult time.
