Malvern, PA
September 24-27, 2018

More Details to Follow!

DEAR Rachel's Vineyard Team Members,

We are so happy to invite you to our 11th Rachel's Vineyard International Leadership Conference! It will be held September 24-27, 2018 at the Malvern Retreat House in Malvern, PA. We have invited a variety of speakers to address a range of topics. Dr. Theresa Burke has been working hard to bring you some fabulous new classes on topics that have never before been discussed in post abortion conferences.

It has been 7 years since the last International Leadership Conference and there are great reasons to celebrate! It is now more important than ever to bring everyone together for four days of education, fellowship and prayer. This is also a great way for those who are looking to learn more about Rachel's Vineyard and healing traumatic experiences, as well as network with volunteers and leaders from around the world. This conference promises to be wonderful and engaging.

We are looking forward to seeing you all there in 2018!!

Rachel's Vineyard: God's Mercy, Love and Forgiveness By Christina Della Nebbia, PhD

Serving as a therapist at Rachel's Vineyard is an amazing experience as the focus of the Lord's mercy, love, and forgiveness intertwines with various living scripture activities, mass, scripture reading and other meaningful activities to help those affected by a past abortion. Many men and women are severely damaged and traumatized due to the experience of a past abortion. . When broken men and women come to the retreat they are very fragile and broken. The love and lack of judgment from the Rachel's retreat team offers an opportunity to help individuals reconcile with God, feel forgiven, forgive themselves and ask for their aborted child's forgiveness. Many have drifted from their faith and the church due to shame and guilt. The memorial service for the children who were aborted provides a way for the woman or man to grieve, honor their child and start to feel emotionally healed. When the Bishop and other clergy are involved in the program, it helps everyone feel that it is a program that is supported by the Catholic Church. It helps them feel that the church cares about their healing and they feel they can come back to their faith and become involved again when clergy are there to help them through the process. Their involvement allows for reconciliation and spiritual counseling and direction which is an essential component to healing. The clergy that serve on the team provide all with a sense that their emotional and spiritual healing is viewed as important to the church. It also shows in some of the exercises in which the clergy play the role of Jesus in the living scriptures that they are enacting the components of Christ which helps make the experience more significant, real, and healing. The love and lack of judgment from the team, but especially from the clergy involved allows those suffering to feel that they are indeed a child of God and Jesus loves and forgives them.

I speak not only as a psychologist with 30 years of experience, but also as a post abortive woman. I buried the pain, and this interfered with my connection with my faith and my involvement with the church. The amount of healing and love that I felt from the team, the clergy, God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit changed my life. I am now very active in my parish and my faith has grown in amazing ways. I was especially impressed that the Bishop was there with us the entire weekend. What support he gave us all without judgement, just healing. This is a very important program and the presence of the Holy Spirit was with me during my healing experience, and guides me as a therapist on the team, along with the structured aspects from the manual that direct each and every sacred activity. Please consider serving on the team because there are many hurt, fragile and broken individuals that are suffering and not attending church because of their shame. You can change that, and I pray for more clergy to embrace this important ministry and program. Thank you and God bless you.

The Daily Mail UK: Abortion and the Men Haunted by Regret

By Kevin Burke, LSW

I was surprised and encouraged to see an article in the Daily Mail Abortion and the Men haunted by Regret featuring a number of fathers sharing openly about their abortion experience.

One father, Tony shares about his state of mind at the time he learned of an unplanned pregnancy. His partner Jenny was set on termination even as Tony pleaded with her to give birth to their child:

“My mind was all over the place... You are experiencing such conflicting thoughts and emotions. On one hand, you’re trying to get your head round the fact you’re going to be a dad when you didn’t plan to be and preparing to be emotionally connected to this child. On the other, you’ve got to disconnect, because there might never be a baby.”

“You got to disconnect... because there might never be a baby.” The social sanctioning of abortion, the context of “choice,” attacks the heart and soul of what it means to be a father.

The reality of the child’s existence is calling this young father to embrace his vocation, no matter how challenging the circumstances. Yet the legal reality that he is powerless, and his partner’s rejection of their baby, necessitates disconnection.

Fortunately Tony reached out for help and saw a counselor to help him cope with the natural anger and grief that flowed from this attack upon his manhood and fatherhood.

Charlie Conner serves with the Rachel’s Vineyard abortion healing program in the United Kingdom. Charlie shares in the Daily Mail article about some of the challenges men face after abortion:

“It’s natural that there is guilt and shame — a mourning process is meant to happen... Guilt will be greater if the man was the driving force in the abortion. Even if they are not religious, they can feel punished when there are other difficulties in their lives. If they have other children, there can be the fear something will happen to them as a result of what they did.”

The article touched on a number of important themes:

- The role of contraceptive failure and intentional contraceptive failure in unplanned pregnancy

- The damage to men of being both passive and powerless to prevent the abortion or active agents in the child's death.
- The same sex identity embraced by one man 3 years after the procedure
- Some men can experience symptoms associated with emotional trauma after abortion
- The delayed onset of grief, regret etc. for some men and the need for counseling and other support.
- The common relationship termination following the procedure
- One of the men featured remained single and childless 15 years after procedure
- Anniversary reactions to the date of the abortion or around the time of the child's due date

Message from the Pastoral Director

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This summer my team and I are speaking at many national pro-life conferences and training sessions – and what are people longing to hear more and more? – The healing message and mission of Rachel's Vineyard! We're sharing it with law students and pro-life activists, with youth training camps and summer music festivals. Everywhere, the Vineyard is growing!

I recently spoke at a Christian music festival to deliver a pro-life message, and the theme of healing was central to my remarks. The crowd responded with nods and other signs of agreement when I started mentioning all the different groups of people who are wounded by abortion -- parents and siblings, grandparents and other relatives, and friends.

Many came afterwards to seek more information on how they could find healing or be a vessel of healing to others.

One of the groups that sang at the festival was from Japan, and in conversation with them later, they talked to me about how silent their culture is about abortion. It happens, but is not discussed. We talked more about how that silence is rooted in pain, and a lack of healing, and how Rachel's Vineyard can help.

Rachel's Vineyard has worldwide impact, and is reaching so many people! Thanks for your continued involvement in this movement of God's mercy!

Sincerely,

Fr. Frank Pavone

For most families, the end of summer is spent enjoying quality time together before another school year begins. However, those suffering after abortion may feel the void of the family they could have had. Help those hurting find peace, renewal, hope, and healing this August by donating to Rachel's Vineyard Ministries.

Rachel's Vineyard is a non-profit ministry that is able to serve those in need through the donations of our wonderful supporters.

United in Prayer

Please pray for the repose of Jonathan Claudy's soul. Jonathan is the brother of Dr. Stephanie, who has helped on Rachel's Vineyard in Doylestown, PA and Camden, NJ as the facilitator and therapist. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of Jonathan's family and friends during this difficult time.

Please pray for the repose of Faith Well's soul. Faith is the daughter of Ramona Dutton, who has facilitated Rachel's Vineyard retreats in Wichita, KS. We pray for Faith's family and friends, that they may find peace and comfort in the Lord.

Please pray for Murray White, Joan White's husband. Joan is a longtime team member of Rachel's Vineyard retreats in Kelowna, BC. Murray was in an accident about a month ago and is now struggling to regain the use of his body. Please pray for healing and strength, to adapt to a serious spinal cord injury.
