The Calling

Hello, my name is Emily Babilonia-González, I am the Spanish Coordinator for Rachel's Vineyard (RV) in Palm Beach, FL. In March 2009 I received a call from Donna Gardner, coordinator of our Diocese for healing ministries (at that time). She explained what RV was (I had never heard about it). She told me that there were a group of people praying for several years that the Lord would put someone in Spanish that would coordinate RV. I knew immediately that this was what the Lord was calling me to do, even though I never had an abortion, my daughter & our family was grieving her 5 miscarriages. I had coordinated different ministries & saw many women suffering the pain of abortion. I knew God was calling me to do something more. So Donna called me & explained what RV was and also said that I had to do the retreat first. I told her that I had been serving Our Lord in Respect Life with another lady (Yanira Muñiz, who passed away in 2011) I immediately asked Yanira to work with me.

We started to pray that the Lord would help us put a team together (all our team had to do RV first) and a retreat center so that we could do our first Viñedo de Raquel. Our first retreat was in August 2010. Today I coordinate with Nilda Sepúlveda-Green, who along with 11 beautiful sister's in Christ, served our Lord. The team (all from different nationalities) Roselyn, Sally, María, Luisa, Sandy, Heidy, Laura, Claudia D., Claudia M, Nerys & Dania, serve our Heavenly Father in this beautiful Ministry of healing & Mercy, called... El Viñedo de Raquel with much love, joy & humility.

The Lord has used us in many different ways. We have implemented RV in many countries. Panamá, Dominican Republic, Honduras, Nicaragua & Colombia. Implementation goes as follows: we bring the Priest who wants to open an RV (we pay for all his expenses) & tell the Priest to bring a therapist & possible coordinator in effort to start building the RV team.

After that we set up a date for their retreat & let the offices of RV know so they can send the proper forms to be to fill out. We do activities as fundraiser to help buy all the items needed for the retreat (a lot of these countries can't afford to buy the items needed). We supply almost everything that is required for the retreat and enough for 1 or more retreats. In addition, we go back to assist them as needed, training a second or third time. All of us pay for our plane tickets & our expenses.

At the end of 2016, I was watching EWTN & they were talking about how abortion was legal & free in Cuba & immediately I felt that Our Lord wanted us to go there to help heal the wounds of abortion, so I started praying & asking God for guidance, I didn't know anyone in Cuba.

However, I asked a few Cuban friends & they gave me a few names & emails which I contacted as fast as I could but nothing came up. So our team & I kept praying. Finally, in February of this year, I received a text from one of the Religious sisters from Panama (who happened to be the first country that we took RV) saying that she knew of a Cuban Priest who was working along with a Religious sister in Cuba in a pregnancy center, however they were missing the part of healing of abortion. She sent me his number & I called him right away & after a few tries I finally got to talk to him. I explained in details who we were & how we work but above all I told him what God does thru RV, he was so happy, I told him that I was very happy & that I didn't know if I should scream or jump, he replied to do both, which I did! We also have invitations to take RV to Venezuela but because of the situation of this Country, it is not safe for us to travel so we have decided to bring a religious sister & a Priest from Venezuela to our October retreat along with another religious sister & Priest from Cuba. From the beginning both groups told me that they have no money to pay for plane tickets or any expenses to which I replied don't worry we will pay for everything! So we are having a dance in May to help us with these 4 plane tickets, if you would like to help (there's no small donation) please contact me at: ebabilonia12@bellsouth.net or (561)254-1728.

We are also planning to go to Irapuato, Mexico in at the end of August to start a new RV over there as well as in February of 2020 a new site in another city of Dominican Republic, we're so excited & Blessed to serve God in this incredible ministry. We don't know where God will continue to take us but wherever it is, we will go. He says in St Matthew 4:19, come follow me & I will make you fishers of men.

Mary Magdalene and the Apostle Peter Perfect Saints for Women and Men
Who Have Experienced Abortion
By: Kevin Burke

I just completed a Rachel's Vineyard Weekend where I served as team counselor. All the weekends are powerful manifestations of the mercy of God and the effectiveness of this healing retreat model for those hurting after abortion. I just completed a Rachel's Vineyard Weekend for healing after abortion loss, where I served as team counselor.

The retreat process features special scripture meditations, the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, and exercises that lead women and men to a deep emotional and spiritual healing.

I was struck how each participant drew closer to Jesus as the meditations and exercises helped them express their pain, shame, anger and fear. In the growing safety and solidarity of the group, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, they discovered a yearning in their heart to draw closer to Jesus, their merciful Savior.

A number of the women in this group suffered abuse, rejection, and exploitation by significant male figures in their lives. This made their encounter with Christ even more profound and healing for them.

As we enter Holy Week and the coming Easter Season, I wanted to focus on two Gospel figures that played important roles in the life and ministry of Jesus. Each offers inspiration and hope for women and men suffering after abortion loss. But they also offer a message of consolation for those burdened by past abuse and anyone suffering from emotional, spiritual or physical illness.

Mary of Magdalene – Apostles to the Apostles

Contrary to the common misconception, Mary (from the town of Magdala,) was not the other Mary of scripture identified as a prostitute. Mary Magdalene was a woman of some financial means, as she was in a position to contribute money to support the ministry of Jesus and the Apostles.

In Luke 8:1-3 we read that at the start of Jesus's ministry:

“The twelve were with Him, and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary who was called Magdalene from whom seven demons had gone out ...and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means.”

Mary's conversion to follow Christ followed a personal experience of His healing power. While her deliverance from “seven demons” could be a reference to an emotional or physical illness, it is also possible that she was involved in occult or pagan practices that may have opened her up to demonic oppression or possession.

Regardless, this healing encounter made her a generous, but also courageous disciple of Jesus. Mary was present at the foot of the cross, grieving and loving her Master as he suffered the horrific torture of Roman Crucifixion.

Pope Benedict XVI had this to say about Mary Magdalene in a 2007 address referencing her role as first witness to the resurrection of Christ:

St. Thomas Aquinas reserved the special title, “Apostle of the Apostles” (apostolorum apostola), dedicating to [Mary Magdalene] this beautiful comment: ‘Just as a woman had announced the words of death to the first man, so also a woman was the first to announce to the Apostles the words of life’ (Super Ioannem, ed. Cai, § 2519).

After many years in abortion recovery ministry, we encounter many women set free by the power of Jesus, who become grateful and fervent Disciples. Like Mary Magdalene, some are called to courageously witness to the saving power of Jesus in the sharing of their abortion testimonies.

The Shame of Peter – His Liberation by Christ

Men with abortion loss, and those who have experienced abuse in the past, understandably struggle to enter into the emotional and spiritual vulnerability that is so essential to healing.

Peter had to face his own pride and fear on the Sea of Galilee, and at that fateful Passover in Jerusalem during the last hours of his Master's life. Men who make the challenging but rewarding journey of abortion healing discover that, like Peter, they emerge renewed and strengthened as men, spouses, fathers and disciples of Christ.

Here's a music video of a song I wrote with Henry Gennaria, "Dawn" on the experience of Mary Magdalene and the Apostle Peter at the time of the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus. It features live performance of the song and excerpts from a beautiful Claymation movie about the life of Jesus, called The Miracle Maker. (I highly recommend The Miracle Maker, a movie faithful to the Gospel accounts, and a great presentation for family viewing during Holy Week and Easter season.)

A blessed Easter Season to you and your loved ones.

*You can listen to the original song, "Dawn" here.

Message from the Pastoral Director

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

During a national webcast on which I spoke recently to help people find concrete, practical things they could do as a follow-up to watching the movie Unplanned, the work of Rachel's Vineyard was mentioned repeatedly.

In the movie, during which a young mom who is about to enter the abortion mill is told, "You will not come out the same person."

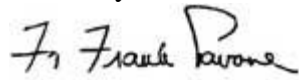

Having served so many people in Rachel's Vineyard, don't we know the truth of that!

Alerting people to that truth and to the help they can find in Rachel's Vineyard, is an important follow-up activity to the film. Our team is making sure that happens.

Janet Morana and I also recently spoke and exhibited at the Heartbeat International Conference, as we do each year, and again highlighted the work of Rachel's Vineyard. Those who serve the many pregnancy centers around the country and worldwide are very aware of the wounds abortion causes, and very appreciative of the work of Rachel's Vineyard.

So thank you for all you do in assuring that this work continues to grow!

Sincerely,

Fr. Frank Pavone
Pastoral Director, Rachel's Vineyard
National Director, Priests for Life

A Fond Farewell

“It is with mixed feelings that we bid a fond farewell to Dr. Joan Stinson from our Ottawa Canada team. She joined as counsellor in the fall of 2012 and shortly thereafter accepted the role of clergy member as well, until stepping down in 2018.

Joan was 'over qualified' from the get go, bringing with her a Doctorate in Christian Counseling, MA in Divinity, MTS in Applied Gerontology and Health Care Counseling, and a BA in Psychology and Sociology. Add to that she is an Ordained Minister, took Dr. Philip Ney's counsellor course Hope Alive, and you see what I mean about being over qualified. But even more important than her degrees was the experience, enthusiasm, passion and caring with which she served. Joan has a very close walk with God and hears His voice clearly. Combine this with her natural intuition, experience and skills, and you have the perfect RV team member. She was greatly appreciated by team and participants alike, sharing with generosity her gifts, heart and love.

Though Joan lives a good 40 minutes away, she was always the first to arrive for meetings, usually early and with some kind of chocolate treat to share. This was indicative of her 'all in' approach and eagerness to give, often taking on more responsibilities than was expected of counsellor and pastor.

We will greatly miss her wisdom, her joyful demeanor and cute sense of humor. We pray God's rich blessings on her as He opens up new opportunities and surprises in her future.”

"If you could only sense how important you are to the lives of those you meet;
how important you can be to the people you may never even dream of.
There is something of yourself that you leave at every meeting with another person."

United in Prayer

Please continue to keep our dear friend Jeanne Haines in your prayers as she embarks on treatment for Lymphoma. Jeanne has been very involved with Rachel's Vineyard over the years, and is on the intake coordinator of Grief to Grace retreats

Please keep Amy Sobie in your prayers, who has been recently diagnosed with Ovarian Cancer. There has been a GoFundMe page set up by David Reardon to help with the financial burden.

"Amy Sobie has been diagnosed with an advanced stage ovarian cancer. On Friday, February 22nd she underwent an 8 hour surgery which included removal of a 13 pound tumor. It is expected that about four to six weeks after the surgery, Amy will begin chemo treatments for about 18 weeks. For over twenty years, Amy has been working in a pro-woman / pro-life ministry. Through her work with the Elliot Institute she has worked to help women struggling with grief and depression after their abortions and has promoted campaigns to create a more healing environment in our churches and cities for those who have struggle with past abortions. Like with many small ministries, she is underpaid, earning less than $35,000 per year. Worse, she doesn't have any company insurance. She pays for her own insurance out of pocket and has a very high deductible. She will be on the hook for at least $12,000 of her treatment, and more likely in the range of $20,000 in expenses. Please join us in both praying for Amy and giving a gift to help her through this medical crisis."
