Encourage and Support Employees to Prevent the Moral Injury of Abortion By Dr. Theresa Burke, PhD

In response to changes to abortion laws in Texas, Citi Bank is using their substantial resources to provide travel benefits and free hotel rooms for women to access abortion facilities.

It's tragic that wealthy corporations led by women are choosing to invest their money to extinguish the lives of their employees babies. I'd rather see them pay for a reasonable maternity leave, or family leave for when a child is sick, providing flex time in the work place or shared job schedules for working moms and dads.

Better yet, perhaps take a miniscule chunk of their $2.291 trillion in assets and help remove some of the obstacles that force women to need abortions in the first place... like funding day care centers instead of sports arenas, or lowering the interest and mortgage rates for families with limited income.

The idea that abortion is a fundamental right, or the only way that women can care for themselves does not reflect the way that abortion is actually experienced. It is more inherently borne as a violation of oneself rather than a caring and nurturing of oneself. Women need nonviolent alternatives and assistance which does not assault their psychological, relational, and spiritual integrity.

Research shows that abortion is much more likely to damage a couple's relationship than to enhance it, as they struggle with the grief, and moral injuries related to abortion.

It is well documented that traumatic experiences fracture attachments and relationships with family, and intimacy with loved ones. Abortion trauma shatters the belief that the self is fashioned and sustained in relation to others and can shatter the values of love, attachment, nurturing and family that give meaning to life.

In my book Forbidden Grief, the unspoken pain of abortion, I shared the story of Tasha. Everything after her abortion echoed the barren landscape their lives had become. Tasha recalled their bleak status:

"There was an eerie stillness to our relationship. A disconnection, a loss of passion, music and everything else we once shared. It all resounded with the echo of my empty womb where nothing grew, my body where nothing hurt, my life where nothing lived... it was the black hole. Our life went on in this vortex...with no love. He did his thing to shame himself, and I retreated into my numbness and depression. It was a sentence of eternal abandonment."

Citi-Bank's reactive gesture is a self-serving false compassion, that undermines the very fabric of necessary help women need in the workforce to nurture and sustain their families. Citi Bank demonstrates a complete failure to recognize the high cost of personal devastating consequences from abortion, which result in post traumatic stress disorders; anxiety; depression; drug overdoses; alcohol abuse; addictions; eating disorders; suicide attempts; sexual dysfunction, and parenting difficulties.

Tragically, the widespread ignorance and denial regarding abortions consequences will contribute to the problem of even more women being coerced into unwanted abortions. Especially if your own employer, spouse, boyfriend or boss mistakenly believes that abortion is a form of women's empowerment and jump on a political agenda, they are more likely to mislead, manipulate and pressure women into unwanted abortions. This is especially critical because 64% of American women who have abortions felt pressure by others<sup>[i]</sup> -- including threats and violent physical assault.<sup>[ii]</sup>

that St. Mother Teresa and her sisters prayed (and her sisters continue to pray) every day:*

Dear Jesus,
Help me to spread your fragrance wherever I go.
Flood my soul with your spirit and life.
Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that my life may only be a radiance of yours.
Shine through me and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel your presence in my soul.

Let them look up and see no longer me, but only Jesus!
Stay with me and then I will begin to shine as you shine,
so to shine as to be a light to others.

The light, O Jesus, will be all from you; none of it will be mine.
It will be you, shining on others through me.

Let me thus praise you in the way which you love best,
by shining on those around me.

Let me preach you without preaching, not by words but by example, by the catching force, the sympathetic influence of what I do,
the evident fullness of the love my heart bears for you. Amen

Meeting the Need in Nigeria! ~ A Letter From Our Site Leader ~

Greetings.

I am gladly writing to inform you that we had our second Rachel post-abortion retreat from 18-20 March 2022. 12 women and a man attended. It was a great experience, and the participants were very happy and grateful. For the first time, they opened up and shared their crippling and toxic post-abortion experiences. The Living Scripture exercises were really a healing balm. Our Team of six members comprising a clinical psychologist (and an abortion survivor), a priest, myself, a sister, and two other volunteers (post-abortive) women were able, through God's grace, to restore lives and experience complete healing. They were so grateful.

I thank God for you, dear Teresa. The Rachel Vineyard model you produced is superb. Once again, a team from the USA offered their financial support to help us defray the expenses. May God reward them abundantly.

We have scheduled another Retreat in June if we could find financial support.

Our women, especially, are dying in silence, guilt, and shame. They need liberation and assurance of God's unconditional forgiveness.

Yours sincerely in Jesus Christ, the Lord of Life,
Sr. Mary Rosanna Emenusiobi IHM

We are so excited for what God is doing for this site and are thankful for the perseverance Sr Mary Rossana and her team have shown these last few years. She included pictures of her team (above), as well as pictures of their memorial mass offerings and their gifts to the participants (below).

If you feel called to contribute financially to this site please reach out to Sr Mary Rosanna at maryrosanna4life@gmail.com.

A Note from the Pastoral Director

Dear Friends,

April is an eventful month.

First, we observe Abortion Recovery Awareness Month. This is an excellent time to amplify our voices to both educate the public about the harm abortion does, and lead people to healing. In our ministry, of course, we have a wealth of experience, a treasure house of training. We must never tire of re-deploying it, of re-introducing people to it, and of refreshing our own understanding and appreciation of it.

We'll be launching a number of new online resources and trainings as the month goes on. As you see them, please spread the word!

Then, of course, April brings us to the celebration of the source of the healing that we proclaim: the saving death and Resurrection of Christ. The events of Holy Week and Easter are the foundation of our Faith and of our ministry. Christ heals us by shedding his blood for us. “By his wounds we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5).

As our celebration of these mysteries helps us appreciate the connection between suffering and healing, we can more deeply appreciate how the suffering of those to whom we minister can indeed be the first step to their healing, and to the healing of many others in their lives.

Happy Easter to all!

Sincerely,

Fr. Frank Pavone
Pastoral Director, Rachel's Vineyard Ministries
National Director, Priests for Life

in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy.”

Virtual Events of Interest: Abortion Recovery Month

April is Abortion Recovery Awareness Month and to shed more light on the devastation abortion brings -- and ways to find healing -- Priests for Life is hosting online seminars featuring some of the world's key leaders in this arena, including:

Dr. Theresa and Kevin Burke, co-founders of Rachel's Vineyard, the world's largest ministry for healing after abortion, and a ministry of Priests for Life;
Janet Morana (Executive Director, Priests for Life) and Georgette Forney (President, Anglicans for Life), co-founders of the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, the world's largest mobilization of those who have lost children to abortion and now speak out;
Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life and Pastoral Director of Rachel's Vineyard and Silent No More.

The seminars will take place:

11 a.m. ET Monday, April 4 - How the Silent No More Campaign began, why so many are speaking out, and how to share the testimonies to impact people who need to hear them.

11 a.m. ET Monday, April 11 - How Dr. Theresa Burke was inspired to develop Rachel's Vineyard into an international outreach with more than 1,000 retreats each year. Also, discover how it anticipated later developments in the field of trauma treatment.

2 p.m. ET Tuesday, April 19 - How can you reach out to friends, family and co-workers who are hurting after abortion. Learn what helps and what doesn't.

11 a.m. ET Monday, April 25 - How abortion impacts celebrities, and the devastation it can bring to family members.

Sign up for our online seminars at www.WhatFollowsAbortion.com.

These seminars can be seen on www.EndAbortion.TV and the many platforms linked from there. Those who sign up will receive additional educational material.

We also have planned a special seminar for clergy:

7:30 p.m. ET Tuesday, April 26 – A “Good Shepherd” seminar on Zoom. We will discuss healing the wounded. Sign up at www.TheGoodShepherdProject.com.

If you know a man who regrets his lost fatherhood, Kevin Burke's book, Tears of the Fisherman, would make a great gift. It's also an important resource for clergy, ministers or counselors in who work with men.

“Tears of the Fisherman is the best book that I have read thus far on the subject of men and abortion. The reason I can say this is from my own experience with an abortion in 1972 after 39 years of suffering as I struggled to forgive myself. Every single chapter spoke to me as a man with the clear understanding of forgiveness for others and myself.” – Brendon Fassett, New Life Solutions, Largo Florida

“What you are is God's gift to you,
what you become is your gift to God.”
