One Topic Rarely Covered in Marriage Preparation Programs (That May Hold the Key to a Healthy, Holy Marriage and Family Life) By Kevin Burke

"Most Christian faith communities offer some form of marriage preparation for engaged couples who are planning their wedding. Such programs will commonly focus on topics such as communication/conflict resolution, the spiritual foundation of a Christian marriage, sexual intimacy, parenting and finances.

But one topic – abortion – is rarely covered in premarital preparation programs, a topic that can be key to a healthy, holy marriage and family life.

This is a very sensitive issue, and we must proceed with great love and charity but the failure to address the emotional and spiritual fallout from a past abortion, or multiple abortions, can be fatal to a relationship."

Follow the Leaders: Get their tips for success

Do you remember Rose Romant Todd, featured in June's "Meet the Leaders"? She was the first black woman Deputy Sheriff St. Charles Parish in Louisiana, who moved out to California to help her uncle who had injured himself. Later, she began leading the Fairfield Rachel's Vineyard team.

Or Mary Huston, in last month's issue, who helped in raising her Down Syndrome sister after her mother died, and publicized the first Rachel's Vineyard in Jacksonville, Florida? She eventually became the Leader of that retreat team.

Or Emily Babilonia, who was highlighted in our first "Meet the Leaders" article, who suffered from a severe car accident as a child, yet never gave up? She ultimately became the leader of the Spanish team in Palm Beach, Florida.

As busy as they are, working full time and running the Rachel's Vineyard teams in their areas, they also creatively support their volunteers and team members and promote the ministry. We thought you might be inspired by their wonderful ideas:

Rose Romant Todd knows how to thank people. She keeps a record of everyone who has donated goods or money—or who has sent prayers and encouragement, including team members and intercessors. She sends thank-you cards to each one and frequently calls them to touch base (she also sends birthday cards to people on her team). For her more-than-80 volunteers (including team members, donors, and intercessors), she holds an annual thank-you event. "It's not about certain people," she says emphatically. "It's about honoring everyone who has supported us through their encouragement, finances, and prayers. It's about showing them appreciation." She then talks about Howard Haupt and Ron Maxson, part of an organization in Napa, CA, who supported her by paying for her gas and registration to attend a Conference that Dr. Theresa Burke was speaking at in Roseville, CA. Howard, Ron, and everyone who has given their time, talent, or treasure, is invited to Rose's thank-you party. And to help keep costs low, they use Dollar Tree invitations, get food donated from nearby restaurants, and decorate the tables with linen. This year's event was a beautiful one, and the guests raved about the cuisine, given by a well-known Chinese and Thai Restaurant.

While praying one evening, Mary Huston "felt the Holy Spirit prompt her to have a team retreat this year." The team regularly has reunions with retreat participants, volunteer meetings, monthly coordinator meetings, and opportunities for spiritual renewal. This year, following the Holy Spirit's lead, Mary scheduled a 24-hour retreat. The team had a beautiful day together—spending time with the Lord, enjoying lovely meditations, and getting to know one another better.

Emily Babilonia has a wonderful way of promoting Rachel's Vineyard. As she mentions in her "How to be a Mentor for an RV Site" presentation (in our Leadership Conference), whenever a team member meets a new priest or religious sister, they talk about the trauma of abortion and explain how Rachel's Vineyard helps heal men and women who suffer from their abortions. Because priests frequently hear that topic during the Sacrament of Reconciliation, they appreciate learning about the ministry. And it's surprising how many are not aware of our retreats. "They love it when we talk to them about El Viñedo de Raquel (Rachel's Vineyard), and they tell us, 'You are an answered prayer, because I've been praying for this.'"

How do you creatively support your team, promote the ministry, or thank your donors? You don't need to be a leader, or have been featured in one of our "Meet the Leaders" articles, to give us your ideas. We'll gladly share them in Vine & Branches and on our Leadership Facebook page! Send your tips to office@rachelvineyard.org or assistant@rachelvineyard.org.

"He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge."
~ Psalm 91:4

RV Recommends: "Mercy Great Enough"

Are you carrying the weight of a past abortion decision? Remember, you are not alone, and healing is within reach. The project "Mercy Great Enough" from our friends at Music for the Soul offers free resources that offer hope, connection, and healing through beautiful music and profound words. The music and the free devotional guide is a testament to God's boundless love and the reality of forgiveness and freedom. Listen to the album at <https://youtube.com/playlist?list=PL0qa3hnTNQLCSsHm9SPhk2ir3J9KJS96S>, and access the free PDF devotional resource at musicforthesoul.org/mercy.

Let the journey to healing begin.

United in Prayer

Please pray for Teresa O'Donnell and her family. Teresa (RV Kansas City) recently lost her grandson, Damian Gunn, in a tragic accident. We pray for the repose of Damians soul, and for strength for Teresa and her family during this most difficult time.

For Donna Crean, whose mother recently passed away. Please hold her, her family, and the repose of her mother's soul in your prayers.

Please pray for Dr. Martha's Shuping and her family, as they recently lost her dear sister, Florence. We pray for the repose of Florence's soul. Martha shares, "I am thankful that she is no longer suffering and I am confident that she is in a better place." Her full obituary can be found here.

Rest in peace, Florence

We are thrilled to share that we have a newly reformed RV team in Malta, and would like to offer prayers and blessings for the team and the retreatants who will attend their retreat in November.

“Gracious words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.”
